

Das Ergebnis jeder einzelnen Rhetorica-Lektion:

Ein vollständiges e-Lesson Log©

Lernende klicken rechts auf die einzelnen Themen, um die persönlichen Sprechfehler und Korrekturen anzuzeigen.

Das Lesson Log© fügt grammatikalische Details sowie einfache Erklärungen, worin der Fehler genau besteht bzw. praktische Tipps, wie man diese Fehler zukünftig meiden kann, an.

Das Lesson Log© stellt jede Woche eine 'zweite Lektion' dar, wenn sich die Lernenden erneut mit den eigenen Sprechfehlern auseinandersetzen und deren korrekte Form verinnerlichen.

Click on any of the logo-topics listed below to open the associated note from today's lesson. Continue clicking through any other desired topics to progress through your lesson log. Click directly on any logo to add that topic to your personal Study List.

Homework

Find an email you wrote to a customer recently where you have a question about vocabulary, usage or level of formality. Copy it so the whole group can follow as we go through it together.

Business & Communication Notes

Appointments: setting the date, day, time and place

Meetings, TCs & VCs: vocabulary and skills

'Should' = the speaker's opinion | 'supposed to' = an external obligation

False Friend: 'eventually' → the action is definite...but a question of time

US: to go on vacation | UK: to go on holiday

Phrase Level

Do you 'do' an action or 'make' an action...?

The older you get...the wiser you get (sometimes).

How many of you are there? → There are 2 of us.

'have to' = it's necessary, 'must' = it's an order/rule (!)

Sentence Level

Conditional 3: the killer! Everything is in the past...

Indirect Questions → no helper verb, no inversion

Question Tags: You know what this is, don't you?

The Tenses

Future Tenses when speaking: 'be going to' → for intentions, 'will' → everything else!

Past Simple Tense → for actions finished in the past

The 'used to' Past Tense → it was true in the past, but no longer

Present Simple Tense → for routines, habits and actions that are generally true

Writing

Emails: mostly medium formal or informal, but sometimes ① formal

Vocabulary

Vocabulary

Individuell auf Schüler bezogene Notizen zu besprochenen Themen während der Lektion

Click on any of the logo-topics listed below to open the associated note from today's lesson. Continue clicking through any other desired topics to progress through your lesson log. Click directly on any logo to add that topic to your personal Study List.

Homework

Find an email you wrote to a customer recently where you have a question about vocabulary, usage or level of formality. Copy it so the whole group can follow as we go through it together.

Business & Communication Notes

Appointments: setting the date, day, time and place
Meetings, TCs & VCs: vocabulary and skills
'Should' = the speaker's opinion | 'supposed to' = an external obligation
False Friend: 'eventually' → the action is definite...but a question of time
US: to go on vacation | UK: to go on holiday

Phrase Level

Do you 'do' an action or 'make' an action...?
The older you get...the wiser you get (sometimes).
How many of you are there? → There are 2 of us.
'have to' = it's necessary, 'must' = it's an order/rule (!)

Sentence Level

Conditional 3: the killer! Everything is in the past...

show all

✗ "If I would have seen it, I would have said something."

> show correction

✗ "I would go home sooner, if I would have known."

> show correction

Indirect Questions → no helper verb, no inversion
Question Tags: You know what this is, don't you?

The Tenses

Future Tenses when speaking: 'be going to' → for intentions, 'will' → everything else!
Past Simple Tense → for actions finished in the past
The 'used to' Past Tense → it was true in the past, but no longer
Present Simple Tense → for routines, habits and actions that are generally true

Writing

Emails: mostly medium formal or informal, but sometimes ① formal

Vocabulary

Vocabulary

Geöffnetes Thema zeigt
persönliche Sprechfehler...

Thema abgeschlossen

Aktueller Fortschritt
des Themas

Click on any of the logo-topics listed below to open the associated note from today's lesson. Continue clicking through any other desired topics to progress through your lesson log. Click directly on any logo to add that topic to your personal Study List.

Homework

Find an email you wrote to a customer recently where you have a question about vocabulary, usage or level of formality. Copy it so the whole group can follow as we go through it together.

Business & Communication Notes

Appointments: setting the date, day, time and place

Meetings, TCs & VCs: vocabulary and skills

'Should' = the speaker's opinion | 'supposed to' = an external obligation

False Friend: 'eventually' → the action is definite...but a question of time

US: to go on vacation | UK: to go on holiday

Phrase Level

Do you 'do' an action or 'make' an action...?

The older you get...the wiser you get (sometimes).

How many of you are there? → There are 2 of us.

'have to' = it's necessary, 'must' = it's an order/rule (!)

Sentence Level

Conditional 3: the killer! Everything is in the past... show all

✗

"If I would have seen it, I would have said something."

✗

"I would go home sooner, if I would have known."

✓

"If I had seen it, I would have said something."

>

show correction

Indirect Questions → no helper verb, no inversionQuestion Tags: You know what this is, don't you?

The Tenses

Future Tenses when speaking: 'be going to' → for intentions, 'will' → everything else!Past Simple Tense → for actions finished in the past

The 'used to' Past Tense → it was true in the past, but no longer

Present Simple Tense → for routines, habits and actions that are generally true

Writing

Emails: mostly medium formal or informal, but sometimes formal

Vocabulary

Vocabulary

Persönliche Sprechfehler
Korrekturanzeige
auf Klick

Meeting | Group BOSTON | 31 Jul 2017

Attendance : Out Of Office

53% complete
Reset progress

Click on any of the logo-topics listed below to open the associated note from today's lesson. Continue clicking through any other desired topics to progress through your lesson log. Click directly on any logo to add that topic to your personal Study List.

Homework

Find an email you wrote to a customer recently where you have a question about vocabulary, usage or level of formality. Copy it so the whole group can follow as we go through it together.

Business & Communication Notes

Appointments: setting the date, day, time and place

Meetings, TCs & VCs: vocabulary and skills

'Should' = the speaker's opinion | 'supposed to' = an external obligation

False Friend: 'eventually' → the action is definite...but a question of time

US: to go on vacation | UK: to go on holiday

Phrase Level

Do you 'do' an action or 'make' an action...?

The older you get...the wiser you get (sometimes).

How many of you are there? → There are 2 of us.

'have to' = it's necessary, 'must' = it's an order/rule (!)

Sentence Level

Conditional 3: the killer! Everything is in the past...

✗ "If I would have seen it, I would have said something."

✓ "If I had seen it, I would have said something."

✗ "I would go home sooner, if I would have known."

✓ "I would have gone home sooner, if I had known."

Key Info Example Basic Formula Careful

Conditional 3 is the killer! Use Conditional 3 for past hypothetical or imaginary situations.

► Use the Past Perfect ('had' + past participle e.g. 'had worked', 'had spoken' etc.) form of the verb in the 'if-section' (the condition), use 'would have' + past participle in the 'result-section' (e.g. 'would have gone', 'would have stayed', etc.)

► All verb tenses must be in the past. →

• 'would have' + past participle: e.g. 'would have seen', 'would have been', 'would have had' = the past form of 'would'

• 'had' + past participle: e.g. had seen, had been, had had (!) = the Past Perfect

- If she had called earlier, I would have picked her up.

- If you had explained it to your wife, I am sure she would have understood.

- If I had driven, I would have been late.

Indirect Questions → no helper verb, no inversion

Question Tags: You know what this is, don't you?

The Tenses

Future Tenses when speaking: 'be going to' → for intentions, 'will' → everything else!

Past Simple Tense → for actions finished in the past

The 'used to' Past Tense → it was true in the past, but no longer

Present Simple Tense → for routines, habits and actions that are generally true

Writing

Emails: mostly medium formal or informal, but sometimes ① formal

Vocabulary

Vocabulary

Auf Fehler bezogene
Grammatik- und
Anwendungstipps
automatisch angezeigt

Meeting | Group BOSTON | 31 Jul 2017

96% complete
Reset progress

Click on any of the logo-topics listed below to open the associated note from today's lesson. Continue clicking through any other desired topics to progress through your lesson log. Click directly on any logo to add that topic to your personal Study List.

Homework

Find an email you wrote to a customer recently where you have a question about vocabulary, usage or level of formality. Copy it so the whole group can follow as we go through it together.

Business & Communication Notes

Appointments: setting the date, day, time and place

Meetings, TCs & VCs: vocabulary and skills

'Should' = the speaker's opinion | 'supposed to' = an external obligation

False Friend: 'eventually' → the action is definite...but a question of time

US: to go on vacation | UK: to go on holiday

✗ "She went to her vacation."
✓ "She went on her vacation."

✗ "I was in holidays last week."
✓ "I was on holiday / vacation last week."

Key Info Example

- to go/ be ON... 'vacation' / holiday → time away from work
- US: We are going on vacation to Hawaii next week.
UK: We are going on holiday to Hawaii next week.
- US: Where did you go on vacation last year?
UK: Where did you go on holiday last year?
- US: It was the most wonderful vacation we have had in years!
UK: It was the most wonderful holiday we have had in years!
- US: What is your favorite* type of vacation? (US → 'favorite')
UK: What is your favourite* type of holiday? (UK → 'favourite')
* See the Tag on the menu to the upper left 'UK English / US English for more information
- The preposition is always, always, always → ON
- Do not use the plural form '...on holidays' → I have to go on holiday.
- a holiday / the holidays → a special, official day of public celebration
- Each country has a different set of holidays. The 3rd of October is a holiday in Germany, the 14th of July is a holiday in France and the 4th of July is a holiday in the US. Most Western European and North American countries have many holidays between the end of December and the beginning of January. Religion is the most common factor which decides which days are holidays.

Phrase Level

Do you 'do' an action or 'make' an action...?
The older you get...the wiser you get (sometimes).
How many of you are there? → There are 2 of us.
'have to' = it's necessary, 'must' = it's an order/rule (!)

Sentence Level

Conditional 3: the killer! Everything is in the past...
Indirect Questions → no helper verb, no inversion
Question Tags: You know what this is, don't you?

The Tenses

Future Tenses when speaking: 'be going to' → for intentions, 'will' → everything else!
Past Simple Tense → for actions finished in the past
The 'used to' Past Tense → it was true in the past, but no longer
Present Simple Tense → for routines, habits and actions that are generally true

Writing

Emails: mostly medium formal or informal, but sometimes ① formal

Vocabulary

Vocabulary

Schwerpunkt des Stoffes
auf alltäglichen und
integrationsbezogenen
Themen

Click on any of the logo-topics listed below to open the associated note from today's lesson. Continue clicking through any other desired topics to progress through your lesson log. Click directly on any logo to add that topic to your personal Study List.

- Homework
- Find an email you wrote to a customer recently where you have a question about vocabulary, usage or level of formality. Copy it so the whole group can follow as we go through it together.
- Business & Communication Notes
- Appointments: setting the date, day, time and place
- Meetings, TCs & VCs: vocabulary and skills
- 'Should' = the speaker's opinion | 'supposed to' = an external obligation
- False Friend: 'eventually' → the action is definite...but a question of time
- US: to go on vacation | UK: to go on holiday
- Phrase Level
- Do you 'do' an action or 'make' an action...?
- The older* you get...the wiser you get (sometimes).
- How many of you are there? → There are 2 of us.
- 'have to' = it's necessary, 'must' = it's an order/rule (!)
- Sentence Level
- Conditional 3: the killer! Everything is in the past...
- Indirect Questions → no helper verb, no inversion
- Question Tags: You know what this is, don't you?
- The Tenses
- Future Tenses when speaking: 'be going to' → for intentions, 'will' → everything else!
- Past Simple Tense → for actions finished in the past
- The 'used to' Past Tense → it was true in the past, but no longer
- Present Simple Tense → for routines, habits and actions that are generally true
- Writing
- Emails: mostly medium formal or informal, but sometimes 1 formal
- Vocabulary

Geöffneter
Wortschatzbereich

Vocabulary

show all

1) Board of Directors (noun)

2) breadwinner (noun)

3) brief (adjective)

4) consultant (noun)

5) convince (verb)

6) informed consent (expression) ('in-FORMD kn-SENT')

Definition: permission granted in full knowledge of the possible consequences, typically that which is given by a patient to a doctor for treatment with knowledge of the possible risks and benefits

Example: "Written informed consent must be obtained from each patient."

Topics: Hospitals, Surgery

Translation: (de) Einverständniserklärung, (fr) Consentement éclairé

7) on business (expression)

8) OTC medication (noun)

9) prescription medication (noun)

10) side effects (noun)

11) to suggest (verb)

12) to take into consideration

Geöffneter Wortbereich

Übersetzung auf Wunsch

Wort zur persönlichen
Favoritenliste hinzufügen