Comment From Your Instructor

I always enjoy class when you come. You bring a totally different energy and viewpoint to class from the others and it has a positive effect on the group. Continue to concentrate on your pronunciation and syllable stress, it is mostly a matter of hearing the correct English pronunciation and then practicing it. When I compare you to two years ago, you have made excellent progress. I watch you during lessons and even though your nature is more on the quiet side, I see that you are actively listening and processing everything we do together and you can be proud of your progress, too!
